KEY ASPECTS OF NATURAL LAW

1. Love & Truth are synonymous terms.
2. Authority is an illusion and will always lead to slavery. Natural law is not man-made. No person or entity should infringe on another's rights.
3. Fear is an illusion and will keep you permanently imprisoned if the illusion is not recognized.
4. There are immutable karmic consequences to not following Natural Law.
5. Each adult person is responsible and accountable for self.
6. We are sacred, divine, eternal energy having a human experience and must embody our divine masculine and feminine with authenticity and balance.
7. Trying to escape or avoid Love/Truth will always lead to suffering.
8. We are collectively manifesting our reality. We must collectively oppose evil.
9. Do not lie to yourself or others. Lying to others is stealing their ability to discern the Truth and never steal anything from another, including property, physical well-being, and sexual contact.
10. Never harm or commit an act of violence against another. Self-defense is not violence.
11. Your Inherent Rights (to live freely as long as you are not in violation of Natural Law) are never to be surrendered or should never be allowed to be taken away by any person or entity.
12. Learn and unlearn what is necessary using methodologies like the Trivium and the foundational Hermetic Principles as a guide.
13. Research etymology and symbols to further your understanding of the world and control systems around you.
14. Understand the real law of attraction and do the Great Work. Do what is right and abandon moral relativism.
15. You are Divine By Design and this must be recognized, embraced, and acted upon. "To know and not to act is not to know." - Wang Yangming

What is a Right?

- Your rights include everything that does not cause harm to another or steal from another.
- All rights come down to property rights. This includes physical property, physical well-being, sexual contact, and your right to exert your Free Will based on Truth.
- Your Rights are God-Given and nothing to do with government or man-made laws.
- This universe is governed by Natural Law Principles (immutable, unchangeable laws of this universe). There is no way around this. Denial or fighting against Natural Law is futile and will only lead to suffering.

What is Lying?

- Lying is willfully misleading or misstating information to another. It is the absence of Truth. It is speaking falsehoods with the intention to deceive.
- Lying to someone about anything that affects their ability to discern the Truth is also a violation of rights. (For example, if a pharma company tells you a medicine is safe that they know is not, that is a violation of your rights.)
- When you lie to yourself, you can't help but to lie to others.
- The more you lie to yourself and others, you continually degrade your ability to discern Truth. You start believing your own lies and much more easily accept the lies of others as Truth.

LIES DESTROY PEACE AND HARMONY WITHIN AND WITHOUT

Knowing the TRUTH directly affects your ability to make sound decisions and protect your well-being.

Lying compromises your integrity and violates the other person's Rights because you're stealing this ability from them.

What is Stealing?

- Stealing is taking property from another without their permission and/or knowledge.
- Stealing is a violation of another's God-Given Rights and Property Rights. It is a violation of Natural Law (the unchangeable laws that govern the universe).
- Property Rights Include: physical objects/things, your physical body and bodily autonomy (includes your safety and privacy), sexual contact/activity (rape or sexual assault), ability to know Truth and make an informed Free Will decision.

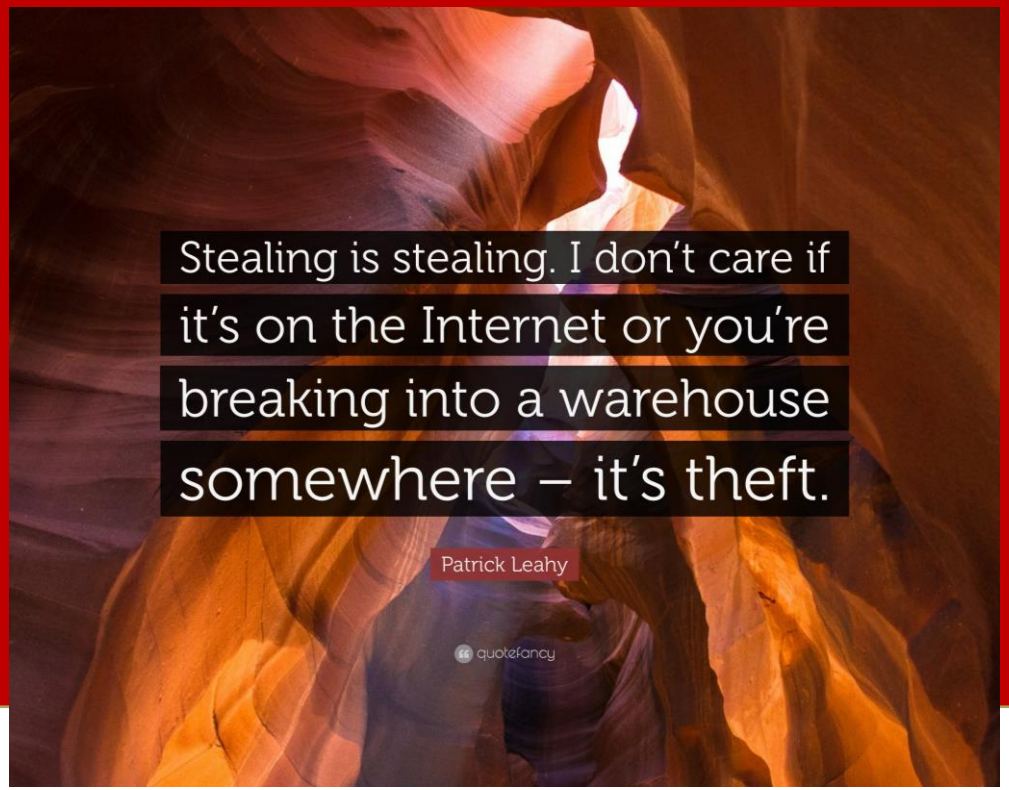
We Have To STOP Justifying Stealing on an Individual Basis and As a Collective



Whether we are stealing resources from another country or stealing money from Grandma's purse, it's still STEALING...

Common Justifications For Stealing

There Is No Shortage For Excuses When It Comes To Stealing

- I needed what I stole to survive.
- It was just a little lie and not a big deal.
- I will make up for it later when I can afford to.
- I'm not really hurting anyone because they have more than they need.
- They deserved it because they are not a "good" person.
- It's for the "greater good".

"Steal a little and they throw you in jail. Steal a lot and they make you king." - Bob Dylan

Commonplace Stealing That Most Just Accept

THIS IS STEALING…

- Taxation that is not 100% voluntary
- Military occupations to steal resources from other countries
- Misleading consumers & false advertising (medicines, retail products, etc)
- Propaganda in any form for any reason
- Police and government seizures
- Colonization of indigenous peoples and other countries (this robs people of their resources, land, and their very culture)

Just because the majority accepts and condones it does not make it okay. Stealing is still stealing even if everyone is doing it.

It All Comes Down To RIGHT vs WRONG

We all have to begin to examine our actions and the actions of others with much greater scrutiny to determine if we are indeed stealing and violating another's rights... Especially when it isn't a more obvious, overt form of theft.

Is Causing Harm Ever Okay?

YES IT IS!

You have a right to defend yourself and your property. Using force against another in an act of self-defense is your God-Given Right. Some would even say it is a duty and an act of Self-Love.

You Have a RIGHT to Defend Yourself!

The Difference Between Force & Violence

FORCE and VIOLENCE are often spoken about as if they are the same, and used interchangeably, when in fact, they are diametrically opposed, polar opposites.

FORCE	VIOLENCE
The capacity to do work or cause physical change; energy, strength, active power	The immoral initiation of physical power to coerce, compel or restrain
Action which is in Harmony with Morality and Natural Law because it does not violate others' Rights	Coercive action which is in Opposition to Morality and Natural Law because it involves the violation of others' Rights
Action which one ALWAYS possesses the Right to take (includes defense against Violence)	Action which one NEVER possesses the Right to take

Self-Defense is not an act of violence.

You have the RIGHT to defend yourself against individuals, groups, governments or any other person or entity who is threatening or causing you physical harm.

Your RIGHTS Are God-Given Not Man-Made

Protecting your Rights starts with understanding them.
You have a Right to do anything that does not cause harm or steals from another. This Right is inherent to the Universe. It is Natural Law.

"Wherever there is a human being, I see God-given rights inherent in that being..."
– William Lloyd Garrison

Protecting Our Rights Takes Courage

How Do We Protect Our Rights?

- Stop asking for your Right to be Free (it is your birthright).
- Gain a deep understanding of Natural Law.
- Do not seek solutions to your problems from the same systems that created them.
- Build yourself up and then begin to build up your community.
- Start taking personal responsibility and accountability for your life (stop looking for a savior).
- Educate others on the Principles of Natural Law and Right vs Wrong.
- Embrace morality and Truth at all costs.
- Become the Light and Love that you wish to see in the world.

Our FREEDOM is inextricably tied to Morality and our ability to accept TRUTH.

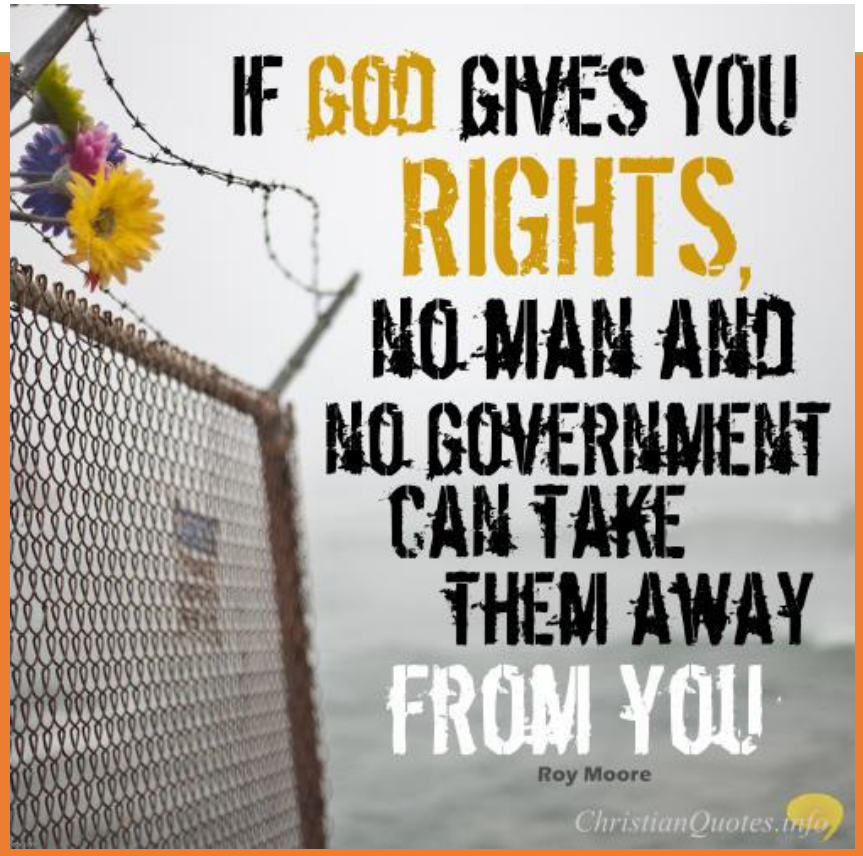
We must give up this illusion of authority. No man has the “right” to rule over another.



It will be up to each individual to embrace their sovereignty and stop bowing down. Only then can we experience TRUE FREEDOM.

I am a leader.
I am not just a body.
I am sacred spiritual energy.
I will no longer pretend to fit in with situations, people, and belief systems that do not resonate with truth.
I trust the universe and appreciate the beauty of the place I share in it.
I embrace my inherent Divinity and I will live in truth unapologetically.
